Annex No. 1 - Detailed method of calculation for settlement, parameters

MFGK and its Buyers shall specify the price of the natural gas sold and the service fee in the contract concluded by and between them.

Rules of surcharge payment

MFGK shall impose on its Buyers surcharges for nomination, capacity overrun, noncompliance with interruption/restriction and balancing pursuant to this Code of Business Conduct, Section 7.9.2.5 on Other fees, surcharges.

Measurement

Measurements and calculations used during the settlement of the natural gas with regard to the quantity and quality thereof shall be carried out pursuant to the relating sections of the Grid Code and the relating sections of codes of business conduct of transmission operators' and natural gas distribution licensees.

MFGK does not have metering devices of its own, therefore during settlement, MFGK uses and considers the metering devices of the relevant licensees of the integrated natural gas system, the work of the professional apparatus operating these devices, and the databases generated by the licensees.
